AMERICA WILL BE BROUGHT TO HER KNEES BY YAHUWEH WRATH AND THE MULSIM BROTHERHOOD

PLAIN TRUTH

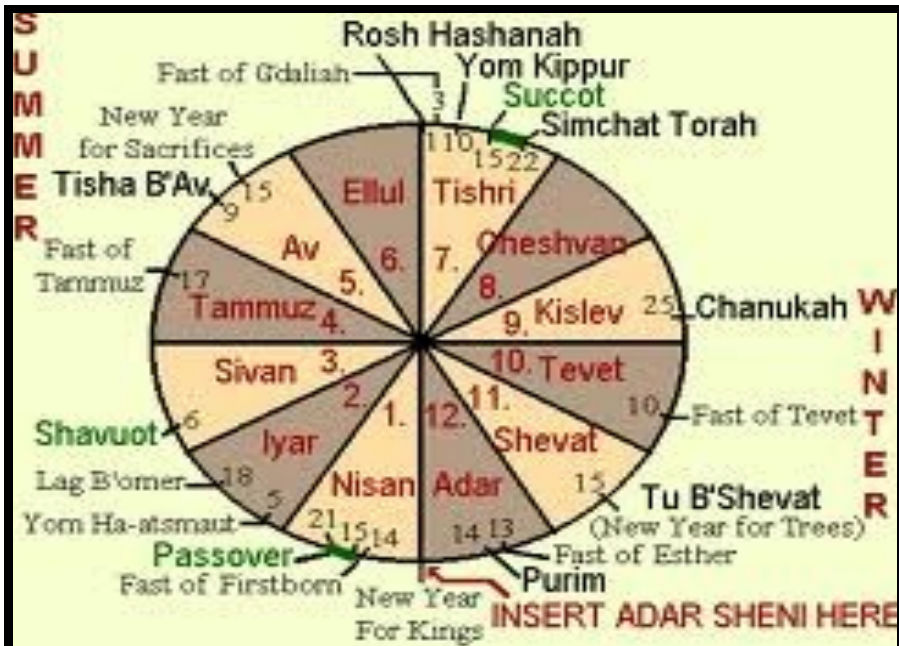

AFTER THE 12 TH IMAM IS CRUSHED, WE WILL ENTER INTO THE MILLENNIUM KINGDOM!

THE STONE KINGDOM

NEBUCHADNEZZAR'S DREAM IN DANIEL 2:31

ALL MANKIND WILL SOON BE ON YAHUWEH'S TIME !

WE BELIEVE A CHILD IS BORN HEAD FIRST!

WE DID NOT COME HERE ALONE;
WE COME AS A COLLECTIVE LIFE FORCE.

We come by Name—only by having a Name can we enter into the world. All that we do in our Name is accounted unto our place in the House of YHWH. We can only hold what we do in our Name.
We come with messengers—those appointed to serve with us to fulfill our position.
We come with Yoseph—the force to bless/expand and to determine our future residence.
We come ordered by Pharaoh—karmic positioning as we serve with others.
We come with a Tribe—a branch Named on the Tree of Life, comprised of all Tribes.

Within us is the pattern of the universal Tree of Life. Through this pattern we know intimately the distinct operations of every tribe; yet each of us belongs to one Tribal Branch upon the TREE of Life. According to our Name and the operation of our Tribe, we are to maintain and serve the whole. The Tribe to which we belong is our Lineage in Yisrael and in the House of YHWH.

On the day we are born, we come with all others with the same Light Sign appointment.

We come through the vaginal doorway of Life with the Hands of YHWH upon our heads.
Tehillah/Psalms 22:9-10; 71:6.

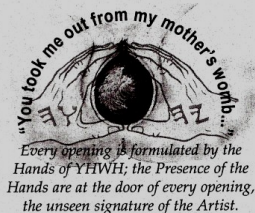

We come through the hands of the midwives that confirm the blessing of YHWH, when He, blessed be His Name, laid His Hands upon us and sent us into the world.

We come as stars forming out of the nebulous.

We come as seeds bursting forth as a field of grain, to be whitened unto harvest.

We come through our tribal branch, our family, on the Tree of Life.

We come with a mighty host, a great multitude of peoples belonging to one NAME.

Deuteronomy

The Words of the Teúwrah/Torah are spoken beyond and above the realm of mortality. The Teúwrah is intended to provide a construct of thought, like a House, in which all ideas may be tested/incubated, known, and then fully expressed. I have found few during the journey that see the greater picture of what is transpiring in the Midrash, although I have been indeed blessed by the fellowship who look into the work and glean as far as their mores will permit them to investigate. Some have the Eyes that can escape the evoking of emotions in the black text and are able to look beyond for the hidden meanings and intentions of the writing. There are language skill that are needed to accomplish this task. That is why during my former years I had to commit to language development and to pursue the ancient tongue that yet is unfolding, as modern influences are scaled off. The willingness to let the influences imposed on the text and the tongue be scaled off will enable us to enter into the consciousness of the Words, for if we hang on to the mores of what is generally accepted, we will limit the extent of what there is to see from those who have imparted to us the Light of Teúwrah.

Nebuchadnezzar's Dream

The statue of the beast is the great golden statue the beast erects to wickedness.

The Book of Revelation shows us that the appearance of the Beast by The Treason Media will revolve around an unholy statue (Demon" Crates). The Man of Evil (12TH IMAM), it says, will erect a statue to honor the beast with the mortal wound which healed. (He Beat the Biblical Tea Party) That beast is heathen government. He will be able to breathe life into the statue and make it speak. (TREASON MEDIA) (Rev.13:14-16).

The history of this golden statue has its beginning with King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon who erected a golden statue in his empire and issued a proclamation which was read to all the people concerning it : (MODERN DAY KING OF BABYLON)

"Men of all peoples, nations, languages! This is required of you: the moment you hear the sound of horn, pipe, lyre, trigon, harp, bagpipe, or any other instrument, you must prostrate yourselves and worship the gold statue erected by king Nebuchadnezzar. Those who do not prostrate themselves and worship shall immediately be thrown into the burning fiery furnace." (Dan.3:4-7).

This statue relates to a description by the prophet Zechariah, who wrote,

"...the angel of Yahuweh showed the prophet Zechariah a bushel. At this, a disc of lead was raised, and I saw a Woman sitting inside the bushel. The angel said, 'This is Wickedness'. And he forced her back into the bushel and closed its mouth with the mass of lead." I then said to the angel who was talking to me, 'Where are they taking the bushel?' He replied, 'They mean to build a temple for it in the land of Shinar - Babylon - and to make pedestal on which to place it.'" (Zech.5:5-11). (World Trade Center)

This first pedestal was torn down, but will be briefly re-erected by the Beast of Revelation and will be torn down again by a Son of David number III. (The Great Image)

H

You will not steal/rob/be a burglar.

If any man steals, he will pay/restore double (Ex 22:3), for he who steals robs from himself and also from his neighbor. What one gains by theft is a compounded loss bringing about confusion, arrogance, illness, and slavery to flesh — the very opposite of happiness and contentment. Rather, by your labors, you will produce a satisfying reward. You will bless your neighbor's personage, position, insight, and anything belonging to your neighbor. You will give freely to He of Elohim—all tithes and choice fruit that belong rightfully to the servants of The Name.

In all your transactions you will realize that no one is to be taken advantage of. You will be continually grateful for all you possess inwardly and outwardly. You will be a joyful giver and a thankful receiver.

You will not answer /respond to your friend with a vain/empty witness/testimony.

You will rather affirm to your friends the fulness that is present within him/her even though they may not be conscious. You will not say, "raq" (Matt 5:22), meaning empty or worthless, for no one is without signification having been ordained to a seat in the House of Life.

You will not covet/desire anxiously carnally nor be greedy/jealous of your friend's wife (gift of support in unity)

and will not crave /long after/sexually lust nor limit or place a boundry on your friend's house (body, potential development)

his field (heart)

and his male servant (initiations)

and maid servant (development),

his ox (cultivating and harvesting ideas),

and his ass/mule (assignment/mission)

and all which belongs to your friend (anything that shall complete him/her).

You shall give freely to your neighbor in support of his/her calling. You will not seek to control or limit others by what you understand. Rather you will seek to expand their potential, their heart of understanding, assisting him/her to initiate, develop, cultivate and harvest, perform a life role amongst you unto their completion.

You realize that your neighbor is a blessing/expansion of life for you. Hence, you will support him/her unto their fulfillment knowing that their fulfillment belongs to you and is thereby your fulfillment also.

And the seventh/complete/satisfied day is a rest to YHWH/Unity of your Elohim. You will not perform every work/mission, you, and your son and daughter and your laborer and your maid and your ox and your ass and all your beasts and your stranger who is in your gates, on account of comforting your laborer and your maid like as yourself.

You will extend rest/consolation to others as you would like consolation/rest.

And you will remember being a servant in the land/state of Egypt/boundaries, and YHWH of your Elohim delivered you from there with a strong/overcoming hand and with an extended/far reaching arm, with assurance YHWH of you Elohim orders you to perform/fulfill the shabbat day (light act of dwelling in confidence in Him).

We certainly recall our past enslavements. Such a recall is to know assuredly that His overcoming love has liberated us to rest in the light in which we are free. Bad memories are an occasion to evaluate and measure our growth in the grace and love of YHWH. Remembering our past enslavements lead us to dance and praise YHWH for the freedom He has led us unto!

Value/glorify your Father (origin/begetter of love) and your Mother (support/developer of love) as YHWH of your Elohim orders you to the end that your days/actions will be long/patient/forebearing and to the end/goal of wellness/goodness for you together with the land/body which YHWH of your Elohim grants for you.

In all things glorify YHWH, your Life Parent that you may not despair during your journey. Keep your focus on the ever sustaining Source of Life that will never leave or forsake you. Continue pursuing wholeness; be not impatient with yourself or others. Be in harmony with your inner sacred gift of Life and its expressions (land state).

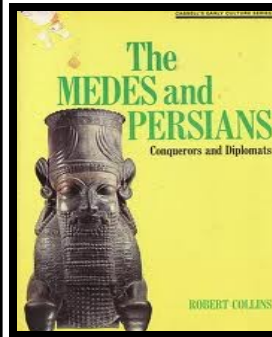

You will never murder/oppress/downtrod/insult another.

As you live in honor to glorify YHWH in yourself, you will also seek to glorify Him in others. You will not be engaged in rejection or oppressing another person's value or gift for the whole.

And you will not commit adultery/enter into pseudo unions/fornicate.

All who respect Me in others will know the order of Unity. A house divided against itself shall fall, so are all in fornication. Rather, you will enter into a love support union that reflects the ever abiding state of unity which I initiated with you.

Through the miracles which it (the second beast) was allowed to do on behalf of the first beast, it was able to win over the people of the world and persuade them to put up a statue in honor of the beast that had been wounded by the sword and still lived. It was allowed to breathe life into this statue, so that the statue of the beast was able to speak, and to have anyone who refused to worship the statue of the beast put to death. (Rev.13:14-15).

The statue of the beast is a statue raised up in Babylon to glorify wickedness. It has two clay feet according to Daniel who was called in to analyze Nebuchadnezzar's dream (Dan.2:26-45; 3:1-15). (THE MEDES/TURKEY AND PERSIANS/IRAN)

The golden statue's two clay feet represent the fatal Achilles' heel in each of Babylon's two manifestations. First, in Nebuchadnezzar's kingdom, and second, in the global empire that his kingdom actually symbolizes, i.e., the "Babylon" that crucified Christ and took the House of Israel into captivity. It is this second Babylon that is of such importance to the Ministry of the Two Witnesses and to all future prophecies relating to the end of the world.

The statue's two clay feet can be seen again, but more vividly reflected, in the two kingdoms of Rome, that of the Caesar's and the one to come when the madman, the Prince of Persia conquers the city at the end of time and establishes his throne there.

At the time of this second "Babylon"/IMAM 12, the Elohim of heaven will set up a kingdom which shall never be destroyed, a kingdom that will not pass into the hands of another race: it will shatter and absorb all the previous kingdoms, and itself last forever. It will strike the statue, shattering its clay feet, bringing it down in pieces. Then this eternal kingdom will grow into a magnificent mountain that will fill the whole earth.

When the time of its reign has been accomplished, the mortal wound this eternal kingdom delivers to the statue is destined to heal. In that healing the whole prophecy replicates itself, proof once more that all the works of Yahweh go in pairs by opposites. At the end of time a second foot will seem to grow, and upon which the statue to wickedness is rebuilt. Babylon will reappear, but its fate will be as before. It's second foot of clay will not stand any better than did its predecessor.

At the time of this second "Babylon"/IMAM 12, the Elohim of heaven will set up a kingdom which shall never be destroyed, a kingdom that will not pass into the hands of another race: it will shatter and absorb all the previous kingdoms, and itself last forever. It will strike the statue, shattering its clay feet, bringing it down in pieces. Then this eternal kingdom will grow into a magnificent mountain that will fill the whole earth.

Nebuchadnezzar was startled awake after dreaming of a great golden statue "of extreme brightness". Scripture describes it as "terrible to see. The head of this statue was of fine gold, its chest and arms were of silver, its belly and thighs of bronze, its legs of iron, its feet part iron, part earthenware." (Dan.2:32-33).

While Nebuchadnezzar was gazing at it, "a stone broke away, untouched by any hand, and struck the statue, struck it's feet of iron and earthenware and shattered them. And then, iron and earthenware, bronze, silver, gold all broke into small pieces as fine as chaff on the threshing floor in summer. The wind blew them away, leaving not a trace behind. And the stone that had struck the statue grew into a great mountain, filling the whole earth." (Dan.2:34-35).

Interpreting this dream for the king, Daniel describes Nebuchadnezzar as the golden head. The arms of silver he describes as a lesser kingdom; the third is a kingdom of Bronze and the fourth is a kingdom of iron destined to shatter all the others (Dan.2:37-40).

The Apostle's would certainly have recognized the metaphor of this vision in terms of the Roman empire. Daniel saw in the image of the statue the sequence of kingdoms that lay between Nebuchadnezzar and David III. The first kingdom, Nebuchadnezzar and his kingdom of Babylon. Second Persia, Greece third and Rome, the kingdom of iron destined to shatter the others.

In the prophecy Daniel explains that this last kingdom, the kingdom of iron, (Rome) will be split in two. (THE MUSLIM BROTHERHOOD IRAN & TURKEY)

That split reflects the mortal wound.

The Ten Declarations of Unity

aka The Ten Commandments inscribed in the writings of Mishneh Torah, chapter 5:6-18, The Book of Deuteronomy
a translation by Shmuel Ben Aharon Wahli

I am YHWH of your Elohim who brings you forth out of the land/state of being defined/bound/depressed/Egypt—from the house of slaveries.

There will not be to you other elohim (strange principles) contrary to My Face/expression of Unity.

You will not position to yourself a graven image/an invalidation of your whole image which is in accordance with the heavens (positional names) from above, and in accordance with the earth (life forms) from below/in support of heaven, and in accordance with the waters (soul members) on account/in support of being designated for earth.

You will not bow/bend/be swayed/be oppressed for them (invalidated images), and you will not serve/be enslaved to them; for I, YHWH of your Elohim, am an El of possession ordering/appointing a season/period of fathers on behalf of children and regard thirds—processes of learning, and regard fourths—pathways to insight, to bring to an end what I hate, and performing kindness for thousands (for the renewing of concepts and opportunities) for loving Me and maintaining My orders.

In fulfilling your name, form and expressions of unity, I have appointed a season of development. A season of fathers is for nurturing and bringing you up to your potential. According to this "season of fathers," I have afforded you with learning and understanding processes unto your complete renewal.

You will not bear the name of YHWH for vanity, for YHWH will not declare innocent him who lifts up His name for vanity/emptiness.

4

Maintain the day of the shabbat/rest to sanctify/set it apart as pertaining to what YHWH of your elohim orders you. Six days (in unifying light acts) you will labor and perform/fulfill all your work/assignments.

THE MOADIM – The Seasons Days, Months and Years

The years, seasons, months, sabbaths, and days occur by the positioning of three teraysarons/pyramids. According to the Tribal type of Teraysarons within the path of the sun during each lunar rotation, the light waves are bent to process the frequency of the Tribal House in the path of the sun. According to the gate openings of the Tribal Teraysaron, the days are longer or shorter and the climate conducive for winter or summer.

The seasons are according to the Tribal Houses verses the generic terms of spring, summer. Calling the seasons according to the Tribal Houses will heighten our consciousness to comprehend the scope of the light that we are dwelling within. Thus for spring, we are in the camps of Yahúdah in that Yahúdah is the head of the camps in the east; and in the summer we are in the camps of Reuben. In the fall we reside in the camps of Ephrayim, and in the winter we reside within the camps of Dan.

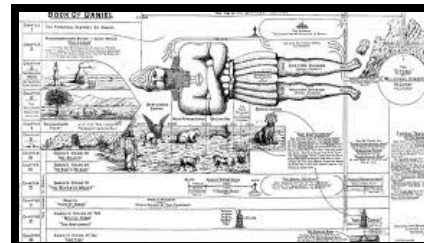

For each of the seasons there are three months or three consecutive moon cycles. Each season is comprised of three moon cycle occurring within each of the three teraysaron types: Wisdom, Understanding, and Knowledge. The first moon cycle for each season is within the teraysaron of Wisdom, the second for Understanding, and the third for Knowledge. These three cycles pertain to the divine order of how a thought is constructed. Each thought has three layers to reveal the full spectrum of the thought. Within each thought there are the foundation of Wisdom—principles are laid down, and then an expanse and comprehension from the foundation, followed by details and codes of mystery that have been wrapped up within the thought.

Regarding the three pyramids, the Teraysaron of Wisdom is comprised of four points that make up the base or foundation of the teraysaron. These are the houses of Yahúdah/Ephrayim and Reuben/Dan. These gates facilitate the messages of Wisdom and operate in conjunction with the light of the sun.

The Teraysaron of Understanding is the construct of Thought composed with the houses of Yissachar/Manasseh and Shimeon/Asher. These houses communicate the messages of Understanding and operate in conjunction with the light of the moon.

The Teraysaron of Knowledge is comprised of the Houses of Zebulun/Benjamin and Gad/Naphtali which are associated with the light of the stars. These houses function in accordance with the lights in the Name and provide an orderly network of communications and perpetual motion. Via these camps, all secured information within every thought is revealed.

The camps of Yahúdah, Ephrayim, Reuben and Dan abide in Teraysaron sides of Wisdom, being gold. From these sides come the kings and judges in the House of Shem. The four camps of Wisdom provide the base or foundation for the Tree of Life to yield the fruit of Knowledge.

The feet you saw, part earthenware, part iron, are a kingdom which will be split in two, but which will retain something of the strength of iron..." (Dan. 2:41).

That split accounts for the two legs and clay feet of the statue. This split refers to the impact of the Holy Torah on Babylon. The first foot smashed represents the fatal wound inflicted on the Roman empire by the words of Yahuweh Prophet's in this Generation..

"Just as you saw the iron and the clay of the earthenware mixed together...the kingdom will be partly strong and partly weak. And just as you saw the iron and the clay mixed together...so the two will be mixed together in the seed of man, but they will not hold together..." (Dan. 2:42-43).

In the time of these kings, Yahuweh the Elohim of heaven will set up a kingdom which shall never be destroyed, and this kingdom will not pass into the hands of another race: it will shatter and absorb all the previous kingdoms, and itself last forever..." (Dan 2:44). (DAVID III THE STONE KINGDOM BUILT ON THE TORAH!)

Yahushua said the fatal wound (to the first foot) is destined to briefly heal in the last days. That healing produces the second clay foot. That second foot of iron and clay is the new Rome, an empire coming to birth right now in the Parthian east. When it rises fully to power it will conquer Rome and insinuate its presence into St. Peter's where it will try to re-erect the statue to wickedness first envisioned by Nebuchadnezzar.

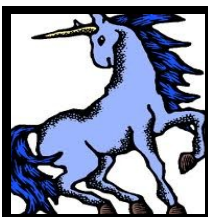

But it, too, will suffer the same fate as the first leg. Both feet of this statue, being earthenware and iron mixed (they don't mix, of course) are fragile and when struck, the whole statue will collapse in ruin. As Nebuchadnezzar saw, the rock that hits the statue and breaks it is untouched by human hands. It comes from Yahuweh.

The mountain formed from the stone that struck those two clay feet is The Torah (Five Books/ Five Stones), the kingdom of Yahuweh which will replace Babylon and last forever.

IMPERIALISM IS JOSEPH'S BIRTHRIGHT BLESSING!

One of the great prophetic promises that Yahweh made to Abraham was that "your descendants shall possess the gates of their enemies" (Genesis 22:17). This same promise was repeated to Rebecca when she agreed to marry Abraham's son Isaac: "May your descendants possess the gates of those who hate them" (Genesis 24:60). The Hebrew word translated "gates" is shaar, which can also mean gateway, city or port (Strong's Exhaustive Concordance, #8179). These ancient prophecies were fulfilled in the last two centuries when control of the world's major sea gates came into the hands of the United States and Britain, also fulfilling other prophecies that the descendants of Abraham's grandsons Manasseh and Ephraim would become a great nation and a great company of nations (Genesis 48:14–22). History reveals how the important sea gates of the world came into the hands of the U.S. and Britain, and how those gates are being taken away. In 1774, Britain gained possession of Gibraltar, on the southern tip of the Iberian Peninsula, at the entrance to the Mediterranean Sea. From the early 1800s, Britain held oversight of the Strait of Hormuz—the vital entrance to the Persian Gulf. In 1814, Britain established the Cape Colony that controlled passage around the tip of South Africa. The British founded Singapore in the 1820s, controlling the Straits of Malacca. In the 1830s, Britain gained control of the Falkland Islands, guarding the Atlantic approach to the tip of South America. In 1839, Britain acquired the port of Aden in Yemen, thus gaining control of the entrance to the Red Sea. Although it was the French who built the Suez Canal in the 1850s, Britain gained control of the canal in the 1880s, and held that control until the 1950s. Finally, one cannot overstate the importance of the U.S.' most valuable sea gate, the Panama Canal, which opened under U.S. control in 1914, and which the U.S. held for more than 80 years. Secular historians attribute these territorial acquisitions to the rising power of America and the British Empire. Yet it was by no accident or mere coincidence that Britain and the U.S. gained control of virtually all of the world's major sea gates during the last 200 years. The Bible reveals that Yahweh was rewarding His chosen people with the birthright blessings that had been withheld for nearly 2,520 years. The ancient Israelites were told if they disobeyed Yahweh, He would punish them "seven times" for their sins (Leviticus 26:18). The prophetic "day for a year" principle indicates that this meant a punishment lasting 7 x 360 years—2,520 years (see Ezekiel 4:6; Daniel 4:25; Revelation 12:14; 13:5). The nation of ancient Israel went into captivity around 720bc because of its national sins. A punishment lasting 2,520 years brings us to 1800ad—the time when these territorial acquisitions began to occur—fulfilling the ancient promises to Abraham's descendants.

THE TRUE SHEPHERDS OF ISRAEL EZK. 34:

TRUE JUDAH, LEVI AND BROTHER JOSEPH

Jeremiah 31 "Behold the Day has come. "Declares Yahweh, "when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and with the house of Judah, 32 not like the covenant which I made with their fathers in the day I took them by the hand to bring them out of the land of Egypt, My covenant which they broke, although I was a husband to them," declares Yahweh. 33 "But this is the covenant which I will make with the house of Israel after those days," declares Yahweh, "I will put my Law/Torah/ 5 Stones within them and on their heart I will write it; and I will be their Elohim, and they shall be my people. 34 "They will not teach again, each man his neighbor and each man his brother, saying, 'Know Yahweh,' for they will all know me, from the least of them to the greatest of them," declares Yahweh, "for I will forgive their iniquity, and their sin I will remember no more."

IMAM'S DREAM FOR AMERICA?

That dream, as D'Souza argues, is the defeat of oppressive colonialism that manifested itself in the rise of the United States as the dominant world power at the expense of the third world. In short, Obama seeks to right the wrongs identified by the most radical Communist sympathizers and activists of the post-World War II world, with Barack Hussein Obama, Sr. chief among them. D'Souza, utilizing Obama's first autobiography, Dreams from My Father, takes viewers along for a journey into Obama's upbringing in Hawaii and Indonesia, and then to his alleged self-discovery in Kenya at his father's grave.

THE REAL DANIEL'S DIET!

Daniel's chief fear of the king's food and drink was that they would defile him. He knew from the Book of Proverbs that intoxicating wine is defiling both in its moral and physical effects. Moreover, he undoubtedly knew that one reason for Yahweh's stricture against unclean foods is that many of them are unhealthy. Otherwise, if he did not view the offered food and drink as unwholesome, why did he tell the king's servant that if he were excused from the regular diet, he would, within just ten days, look better than all the other boys? He asked to eat "pulse," which can refer to any vegetable food, including grains (6). Eating nothing but pulse assured that he would avoid all wine, unclean meats, and bizarre delicacies. The word translated "meat" (verse 5) means "rich food" (7). Although he was foregoing acceptable meats and beverages, he evidently believed that a simple diet of vegetables was far healthier than the sumptuous diet provided by the king. Daniel knew very well that the conclusion of his course of action might be death. No kindness or softness moderated the king's justice. Anyone who displeased Nebuchadnezzar could expect to die swiftly, and by a method of execution that was grisly in the extreme. When the king was enraged against the wise men of Babylon, he condemned them to be cut into pieces (Daniel 2:5). In other words, while they were still alive and conscious, they were to be dismembered, limb from limb, with an ax. When Daniel's three friends refused to obey the king's order to bow down before a great image, the king cast them alive into a fiery furnace (Daniel 3:15-20). He put away two false prophets who annoyed him by roasting them in the fire (Jeremiah 29:22). As noted earlier, he punished the Jewish king Zedekiah by blinding him after he had witnessed the slaughter of his sons (Jeremiah 52:10-11).
